Odyssey's own Ms. Casey Bowne was surprised on Thursday during the school day! Visitors from 99.5 WJBR and the Delaware State Education Association came into her classroom to present her with a Teacher of the Month Award! Congratulations Ms. Bowne!

We are incredibly excited to share that our own Mrs. Melissa Tracy has been chosen as one of the select few 2019 Grosvenor Teacher Fellows with National Geographic and Lindblad Expeditions. She will embark on a journey to the Galapagos in September!

"In recognition of their commitment to geographic education, 45 highly respected educators have been selected as the 13th group of Lindblad Expeditions and National Geographic Grosvenor Teacher Fellows. The 2019 Fellows will embark on expeditions to locations including the High Arctic, Alaska, Central America, Antarctica and the Galápagos Islands on board Lindblad Expedition ships to enhance their geographic knowledge with hands-on, field-based experiences that they will bring back to their pre-K–12 classrooms, communities and professional networks."

The 2019 class of Grosvenor Teacher Fellows is the largest ever selected in the program's 13-year history. This diverse group of formal and informal educators, representing an array of grade levels and subject areas including social studies, STEM, second-language programs and art, are from across the United States and Canada as well as a U.S. Department of Defense Activity School in Japan."

See <https://www.nationalgeographic.org/newsroom/national-geographic-society-and-lindblad-expeditions-announce-13th-annual-grosvenor-teacher-fellowship-class--largest-in-programs-history/> for more information about this exciting opportunity!

OCS Cooking Club visited OPA OPA Greek restaurant in Wilmington on Tuesday. They tasted traditional Mediterranean Cuisine that they practiced making all year long during our club. It has been another successful year ladies, thank you for being such awesome cooks!

Dear Parents,

As we approach the End of the Year Testing time, please be sure to remind your child:

- Headphones/earbuds: that their headphones or ear buds (standard 3.5mm jack) should be with their teacher in a labelled Ziploc bag
- Cell phones/smart watches: to either leave their cell phones and/or smart watches at home or that they should lock them in their lockers.
- Sleep, breakfast, and a hug: Please remind them to sleep well, have a good breakfast and send them out with a big hug!

Thank you!
